

PRESS RELEASE

National Insurance Day – 1st September 2017

The Government has declared 1st September as the “National Insurance Day”, marking an important milestone in the insurance industry of Sri Lanka, recognising the contribution made by the insurance industry to the national economy and to the welfare of the society. This is a realization of a joint effort by the regulator of the insurance industry, the Insurance Board of Sri Lanka (IBSL), and the representative body of the insurance industry, the Insurance Association of Sri Lanka (IASL).

A special commemorative stamp and a first-day cover were presented to His Excellency the President to commemorate the inaugural National Insurance Day, by the Hon. Deputy Minister of Posts, Postal Services and Muslim Religious Affairs, in the presence of representatives of IBSL and IASL.

A ceremony was held to commemorate inaugural National Insurance Day on 1st September at Independence Arcade, Colombo 07.
